Customer Journey Map

Map out the customer's experience stage-by-stage, capturing their actions, touchpoints, thoughts, and feelings, along with process ownership and improvement opportunities at each stage.

Phase of Journey	Stage 1 Discover & Start	Stage 2 Create the Comic	Stage 3 Review & Share
Actions What does the customer do?	- Searches for an AI tool to turn ideas into comics - Signs in and opens ComicCraft - Enters a story idea or prompt	- Chooses genre, art style and characters - Generates the script and panel layout - Edits dialogue and panel captions	- Previews the finished comic - Downloads or shares the comic - Saves it and starts a new story
Touchpoint What part of the service do they interact with?	- Landing page - Login / sign-up screen - Story prompt input box	- Style and character selector - Gemini-powered story generator - Panel editor	- Comic preview screen - Export / share options - My Stories library
Customer Thought What is the customer thinking?	- Can AI really make a comic from my idea? - Is this easy to start? - What should I write?	- Will the story match my style? - Can I change what it generates? - This is faster than drawing by hand	- Does this look good enough to share? - Can I keep a copy? - I want to make another one
Customer Feeling What is the customer feeling?	- Curious - Hopeful but unsure	- Excited - Engaged and in control	- Proud - Satisfied and motivated

Process Ownership Who is in the lead on this?	Frontend and UX team User onboarding	AI / Gemini integration team Backend developers	Product owner Export and storage team
